Library Subject Guide

<http://library.nlc.bc.ca>

Information literacy is a set of abilities requiring individuals to "recognize when information is needed and have the ability to locate, evaluate, and use effectively the needed information."

Association of College and Research Libraries

The study of Canadian Literature involves the study of creative works such as novels, short stories and poetry by Canadian authors. Northern Lights College offers a number of Literature courses: Nonfictional Prose, Poetry and Drama, Prose Fiction, Survey of English Literature I & II, Canadian Literature, Children's Literature, Women's Literature.

For related material, view the English - Creative Writing, English - Literature, English - Writing Resources, and Shakespeare Library Subject Guides.

Ask a Librarian for assistance in finding relevant books and journal articles and/or if you need help researching a course related topic. The librarian will also provide assistance in using the Library's website, online catalogue, article databases, and the Internet. Contact the librarian directly or use the "Ask a librarian" section on the Library web pages.
