

New NLC housing student accommodation payment structure

1. What does 'pay by semester/program' mean?

Previously, students made monthly payments for housing. Paying by semester/program means students will make one payment prior to the start of their semester or trade program. For example, if you are enrolled in classes from September to April, there would be one payment to cover housing from September to December, and a second payment to cover January to April. If you are enrolled in a program that is eight weeks long, there would be one payment to cover all eight weeks.

2. When will the 'pay by semester program' begin?

Fall semester — September 1, 2024.

3. When are fees due?

- 3.1 Your application fee is due when submitting your application to NLC;
- 3.2 Damage/security deposit is due when you receive confirmation of your suite;
- 3.3 Student housing accommodation fees are due five business days BEFORE you move in.

4. What if I pay for my semester/program and then move out early?

Please check with the Student Housing Guide and Handbook or with the Student Housing Manager to confirm how much notice you need to give before moving out. You will be given a refund for the time you will not be living in housing.

5. What if I am struggling financially and can't afford the payment for my semester/program?

Please reach out to the Student Housing Manager to discuss options and request an application for the monthly student housing payment plan.
